AMERICAN SLAVERY.

DEDICATED TO UNION MEN.

Wipe out the blot! Wipe out the spot!
Jehovah's sword is flaming high!
Wipe out the blot! Cut out the rot!
In its own venom let it die!

It is the scorpion girt by fire;
Self kindled are the flames that spread,
In its own fire let it expire,
Its own sting rankling in its head!

Wipe out the spot! Wipe out the blot!
The parricidal, horrid thing!
For him be not a freeman's lot
Who'd back to life the monster bring.

On to the long predestined end—
The march of time is moving now!
As sweeps the surge events converge
To rend the veil from Freedom's brow.

Wipe out the spot! Wipe out the blot!
The only stain our banner shows;
O! who has not bewailed the lot
That heap'd on us the bondman's throes!

We stand for all our country's laws;
But now that they have rent the chain,
Who backward draws from Freedom's cause
Let him not rank with men again!

The worm that eats the root is found;
The surgeon's knife is at the sore,
Shall health abound? The tree grow sound?
Or, conscious, wither as before?

It is for life! and ours the tale
To us and to ages yet to come
Shall fiends prevail? Shall Heaven fail?
The answer leaps e'en from the dumb.

The cancer dries the vital flow
While one polluting root remains,
And even so no healthful glow
Can spread, where Slavery clogs the veins.

Behold the curse! Its desp'rate hands
Are shaking now the sacred base,
Where Freedom stands with clenched hands
And sinews strained to save her race.

Let no man fear! Our Eagle yet
Will closely the clouds and ride the wind,
The' Slavery fret, its star be set—
His flight shall leave that night behind

Still brighter smiles shall dress the soil
Where sugar, rice, and cotton grow,
And freeman's toil shall know no foil,
Though black or white his color show.

Wipe out the blot! Wipe out the spot!
Jehovah's sword is flaming high!
Wipe out the blot! Cut out the rot!
In its own venom let it die!

—Evening Post

Communication from Mat. H. Carpenter.

From the Milwaukee News.

Mr. Editor:—Returning from two weeks absence, a friend has called my attention to a late number of your paper, in which I am denounced as a "renegade democrat of three years standing." When you penned this courteous and argumentative sentence you were either asserting what you knew nothing about, or you knew the statement was wholly untrue. You are entitled to the more charitable alternative, and I ask you to publish this reply.

I take democracy to be something more than an occasional support of the ticket. To be a democrat, a man must believe the things that make a democrat, and steadily labor to give his faith practical effect in the administration of our national and state affairs. Democracy is as old as the rights of man; and, in this country has a written creed and living history. It is the "sober second thought" of the people that is always right, and in the record of this sober second thought—not in the angry effusions of the passing hour—we find our faith. Whoever deserts this faith is a renegade. But, by refusing to support a particular ticket, one may be a renegade or not, as the nomination represents or misrepresents the principles of the party; for it is to principles, not men, that one owes allegiance.

1. I challenge you to show a single word, written or spoken by me, that is not democratic, as democracy is expounded by Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, or any other democratic orator or writer, until the bogus address put forth by a convention of which your paper admitted that not a few of its members had never voted a democratic ticket, or sat in a democratic convention before. When such a convention publishes a document deriving its heretical doctrines and its muffled patriotism from the address of the Hartford convention, giving no token of the living loyalty that has always characterized our party, a devotion above technicalities and charitable of blunders well intended, I did not regard it a democratic document; and, denouncing it, quoted from democratic writings and history to show it unsound and false. This address contradicts the doctrines of our party, and condemns the conduct of our most distinguished party leaders; and, to oppose it is, in my opinion, adhering to and not abandoning democracy.

2. As to supporting party nominations. I never voted but once, except in Wisconsin, and that was for Lucius B. Peck, regular democratic nominee for Congress from my native district. I came here in 1848, and made my maiden public speech in defense of Cass and the doctrines of his Nicholson letter. From that time till the assault upon Fort Sumpter by armed treason, I supported every democratic nomination for national or state office, with voice, vote and money, and to this hour, I have never voted a whig, free soil, republican, fusion, union or people's ticket. When the rebellion came, I was willing to follow the counsels of Douglas, and bury party till the country should be secured from danger. This would not have made me a renegade to party. You labor at your editorial duties six days; observing the Sabbath, you abstain from labor on the seventh day, but you are not for that reason a renegade from your editorial character on Sunday—you simply waive it for a day.—So during this war we could have dropped party, without being derelict to it. But the republicans would not permit this. In this congressional district they refused to go into a union convention; but would and did have party convention and candidate. Of course the co operation of democrats was impossible. The so-called Union and republican state conventions of 1861 were so commingled,—succeeding each other with just enough change of scene to give the necessary stage effect,—that their nominations could only be regarded as a successful party trick. A different line of policy would have united all loyal men in one organization. It is now too late.—Parties must exist, and it becomes the duty of democrats to do all in their power to keep their own party in harmony with its principles, loyal to the government, by whomsoever administered, to the end of this war. The convention that nominated Mr. Palmer had it in its power to have united all the democrats in his support, and thus have carried the state. The patriotic was the prudent course. Principle and policy kissed each other, and the convention had but to nominate its ticket upon a loyal platform, and all democrats would have supported Palmer cheerfully; for he was believed to be a war [illegible]

I heard him make at Fond du Lac, and repeated conversations with him had left this impression upon me; but when, stooping to the heavy burthen of the Ryan address, he obediently endorsed "every sentence and every line of it," I was suddenly and painfully disenchanted.

But you may say I made war speeches. So did Palmer; and if that made me a renegade, he was one also. If he has since suspended his support of the war, then he has earned the title twice instead of once. You may say I spoke against Eldredge in his late canvass for congress. I spoke several times in his district, but never in any speech alluded either to him or Bragg, favorably or unfavorably. I advocated an unconditional support of the government, and as a means to that end, the support of the most sincerely patriotic candidate, without regard to what convention nominated him. If Eldredge was that man, then I was stumping his district for him; if he was not, the fault was with him, not me.

Now, how stands the record of those who are assuming with confidence perfectly sublime to read old democrats out of the fold: I allude to Ryan, Eldredge, Orton & Co.

How many democratic nominees for governor of this state, has Ryan supported? Did he support Upham, or Cross, or Hobart, or Barstow in his second canvass; or Daniel Wells, jr, or Jackson Hadley, or Beriah Brown, democratic nominees for congress in his district? And if either, which and how many? I am informed not. Did he not bolt the democratic nomination for congress last fall, and at the polls did he not openly cut from his ticket the name of Hon. Jas. S. Brown? I am told he did. There is a legend in the east that a certain great prophet went up to heaven on a ladder, and the reason others cannot follow is, that he pulled the ladder up after him. Ryan performed as wonderful a feat. He had bolted nearly every democratic nomination for years, until he could no longer be called in the party, he then published his address which knocked the party high and dry, and commenced a new party so as to be legitimately in it.—So long as conventions met only to endorse his address, he did stay in; but the first nominating convention nominated Brown for congress and he bolted, and the first state convention saw him attempt to palm off upon it, a republican, as candidate for chief justice. As to Mr. Eldredge, did he and Ichabod Codding, who would consider himself insulted if charged with ever having been a democrat, stump his county for the free soil ticket? I am told he did. It so the zeal of the new convert—poignant grief for recent sin—explains his conduct.

And Judge Orton, but here I would tread lightly. Judge Orton is a man of genius, an orator and a high minded, brave hearted, impulsive, outspoken gentleman. He has every qualification to speak for democracy, except experience. Time may improve him in this particular. If he had not gotten the start by first excluding me, I should certainly have welcomed him, and should have had the same evidence of his being in the democratic fold, that a war and he had that another gentleman was in the republican party—he saw him come in.

These are the three leaders of the faction which as times to speak for the democrats of Wisconsin. Their seats are not yet warm, when they spring up to exclude those who were *laboring for the democratic tick*ets which they were opposing and bolting, and assume to apply discipline to any one who objects to what they now utter, as the "be all and end all" of democracy.

If it is wrong to bolt a democratic ticket, why has Ryan always bolted it? and why did not the ticket you support omit those who bolted Douglas, the last democratic candidate for president, and who supported the traitor Breckenridge?

If wrong to oppose democratic faith, why did Eldredge preach free soilism? and Orton try every other faith before giving in his adherence to this? If these things are all right, why not indulge other men with the same privilege of bolting a democratic nomination which is put upon a federal platform?

Now, Messrs. Lyon & Paul, are you in favor of this war? Are you not both bitterly opposed to it? Has your paper ever contained a word of encouragement, or suggested a hope to the government? Have you not uniformly published every discouraging fact or theory that has come to light, against enlistments and the prosecution of this war? Have you not over and over again predicted the impossibility of the government's putting down the rebellion? Would you, if in your power, put down the rebellion by force, and against the wishes of the rebels?

These are questions I should not presume to ask if you were not slightly given to examining the opinions of your friends, myself included. MAT. H. CARPENTER.

REV. J. WEST, Brooklyn, L. I.: "I will testify to their value in the most liberal sense. They have restored my hair where it was bald, and, where grey, to its original color."

REV. A. WEBSTER, Boston, Mass.: "I have used them with great effect. I am now neither bald nor grey. My hair was dry and brittle; it is now soft as in youth."

REV. H. V. DEGEN, Boston, Mass.: "That they promote the growth of the hair where baldness is, I have the evidence of my own eyes."

DEDICATED TO UNION MEN.

Wipe out the blot! Wipe out the spot!
Jehovah's sword is flaming high!
Wipe out the blot! Cut out the rot!
In its own venom let it die!

It is the scorpion girt by fire:
Self-kindled are the flames that spread;
In its own ire let it expire,
Its own sting rankling in its head!

Wipe out the spot! Wipe out the blot!
The parricidal, horrid thing!
For him be not a freeman's lot
Who'd back to life the monster bring.

On to the long predestined end—
The march of time is moving now!
As sweeps the surge events converge
To rend the veil from freedom's brow.

Wipe out the spot! Wipe out the blot!
The only stain our banner shows;
O! who has not bewailed the lot
That heap'd on us the bondman's throes!

We stand for all our country's laws;
But now that they have rent the chain,
Who backward draws from Freedom's cause
Let him not rank with men again!

The worm that eats the root is found;
The surgeon's knife is at the sore;
Shall health abound? The tree grow sound?
Or, conscious, wither as before?

It is for life! and ours the tale
To sound to ages yet to come.
Shall fiends prevail? Shall Heaven fail?
The answer leaps o'on from the dumb.

The cancer dries the vital flow
While one polluting root remains;
And even so no healthful glow
Can spread, while Slavery clogs the veins.

Behold the curse! Its desp'rate hands
Are shaking now the sacred base,
Where Freedom stands with clenched hands
And sinews strained to save her race.

Let no man fear! Our Eagle yet
Will cleave the clouds and ride the wind,
Tho' Slavery fret, its star be set—
His flight shall leave that night behind!

Still brighter smiles shall dress the soil
Where sugar, rice, and cotton grow,
And freemen's toil shall know no toil,
Though black or white his color show.

Wipe out the blot! Wipe out the spot!
Jehovah's sword is flaming high!
Wipe out the blot! Cut out the rot!
In its own venom let it die!

—Evening Post.

Communication from Mat. H. Carpenter.

From the Milwaukee News.

Mr. Editor:—Returning from two weeks absence, a friend has called my attention to a late number of your paper, in which I am denounced as a "renegade democrat of three years standing." When you penned this courteous and argumentative sentence you were either asserting what you knew nothing about, or you knew the statement was wholly untrue. You are entitled to the more charitable alternative, and I ask you to publish this reply:

I take democracy to be something more than an occasional support of the ticket. To be a democrat, a man must believe the things that make a democrat, and steadily labor to give his faith practical effect in the administration of our national and state affairs. Democracy is as old as the rights of man; and, in this country has a written creed and living history. It is the "sober second thought" of the people that is always right, and in the record of this sober second thought—not in the angry effusions of the passing hour—we find our faith. Whoever deserts this faith is a renegade. But, by refusing to support a particular ticket, one may be a renegade or not, as the nomination represents or misrepresents the principles of the party; for it is to principles, not men, that one owes allegiance.

1. I challenge you to show a single word, written or spoken by me, that is not democratic, as democracy is expounded by Jefferson, Madison, Monroe, Jackson, or any other democratic orator or writer, until the bogus address put forth by a convention of which your paper admitted that not a few of its members had never voted a democratic ticket, or sat in a democratic convention before. When such a convention publishes a document deriving its heretical doctrines and its muffled patriotism from the address of the Hartford convention, giving no token of the living loyalty that has always characterized our party, a devotion above technicalities and charitable of blunders well intended, I did not regard it a democratic document; and, denouncing it, quoted from democratic writings and history to show it unsound and false. This address contradicts the doctrines of our party, and condemns the conduct of our most distinguished party leaders; and, to oppose it is, in my opinion, adhering to and not abandoning democracy.

2. As to supporting party nominations. I never voted but once, except in Wisconsin, and that was for Lucius B. Peck, regular democratic nominee for Congress from my native district. I came here in 1848, and made my maiden public speech in defense of Cass and the doctrines of his Nicholson letter. From that time till the assault upon Fort Sumpter by armed treason, I supported every democratic nomination for national or state office, with voice, vote and money, and to this hour, I have never voted a whig, free soil, republican, fusion, union or people's ticket. When the rebellion came, I was willing to follow the counsels of Douglas, and bury party till the country should be secured from danger. This would not have made me a renegade to party. You labor at your editorial duties six days; observing the Sabbath, you abstain from labor on the seventh day, but you are not for that reason a renegade from your editorial character on Sunday—you simply waive it for a day.—So during this war we could have dropped party, without being derelict to it. But the republicans would not permit this. In this congressional district they refused to go into a union convention; but would and did have party convention and candidate. Of course the co-operation of democrats was impossible. The so-called Union and republican state conventions of 1861 were so commingled,—succeeding each other with just enough change of scene to give the necessary stage effect,—that their nominations could only be regarded as a successful party trick. A different line of policy would have united all loyal men in one organization. It is now too late.—Parties must exist, and it becomes the duty of democrats to do all in their power to keep their own party in harmony with its principles, loyal to the government, by whomsoever administered, to the end of this war. The convention that nominated Mr. Palmer had it in its power to have united all the democrats in his support, and thus have carried the state. The patriotic was the prudent course. Principle and policy kissed each other, and the convention had but to nominate its ticket upon a loyal platform, and all democrats would have supported Palmer cheerfully; for he was believed to be a war democrat. A speech I heard him make at Fond du Lac, and repeated conversations with him had left this impression upon me; but when, stooping to the heavy burthen of the Ryan address, he obediently endorsed "every sentence and every line of it," I was suddenly and painfully disenchanted.

But you may say I made war speeches. So did Palmer; and if that made me a renegade, he was one also. If he has since suspended his support of the war, then he has earned the title twice instead of once. You may say I spoke against Eldredge in his late canvass for congress. I spoke several times in his district, but never in any speech alluded either to him or Bragg, favorably or unfavorably. I advocated an unconditional support of the government, and as a means to that end, the support of the most sincerely patriotic candidate, without regard to what convention nominated him. If Eldredge was that man, then I was stumping his district for him; if he was not, the fault was with him, not me.

Now, how stands the record of those who are assuming with confidence perfectly sublime to read old democrats out of the fold: I allude to Ryan, Eldredge, Orton & Co.

How many democratic nominees for governor of this state, has Ryan supported? Did he support Upham, or Cross, or Hobart, or Barstow in his second canvass; or Daniel Wells, jr., or Jackson Hadley, or Beriah Brown, democratic nominees for congress in his district? And, if either, which and how many? I am informed not. Did he not bolt the democratic nomination for congress last fall, and at the polls did he not openly cut from his ticket the name of Hon. Jas. S. Brown? I am told he did. There is a legend in the east that a certain great prophet went up to heaven on a ladder, and the reason others cannot follow is, that he pulled the ladder up after him. Ryan performed as wonderful a feat. He had bolted nearly every democratic nomination for years, until he could no longer be called in the party; he then published his address which knocked the party high and dry, and commenced a new party so as to be legitimately in it.—So long as conventions met only to endorse his address, he did stay in; but the first nominating convention nominated Brown for congress and he bolted, and the first state convention saw him attempt to palm off upon it, a republican, as candidate for chief justice. As to Mr. Eldredge, did he and Ichabod Codding, who would consider himself insulted if charged with ever having been a democrat, stump his county for the free soil ticket? I am told he did. If so the zeal of the new convert—poignant grief for recent sin—explains his conduct.

And Judge Orton, but here I would tread lightly. Judge Orton is a man of genius, an orator and a high-minded, brave-hearted, impulsive, outspoken gentleman. He has every qualification to speak for democracy, except experience. Time may improve him in this particular. If he had not gotten the start by first excluding me, I should certainly have welcomed him, and should have had the same evidence of his being in the democratic fold, that a wag said he had that another gentleman was in the republican party—he saw him come in.

These are the three leaders of the faction which assumes to speak for the democrats of Wisconsin. Their seats are not yet warm, when they spring up to exclude those who were laboring for the democratic tickets which they were opposing and bolting; and assume to apply discipline to any one who objects to what they now utter, as the "be all and end all" of democracy.

If it is wrong to bolt a democratic ticket, why has Ryan always bolted it? and why did not the ticket you support omit those who bolted Douglas, the last democratic candidate for president, and who supported the traitor Breckenridge?

If wrong to oppose democratic faith, why did Eldredge preach free soilism? and Orton try every other faith before giving in his adherence to this? If these things are all right, why not indulge other men with the same privilege of bolting a democratic nomination which is put upon a federal platform?

Now, Messrs. Lyon & Paul, are you in favor of this war? Are you not both bitterly opposed to it? Has your paper ever contained a word of encouragement, or suggested a hope to the government? Have you not uniformly published every discouraging fact or theory that has come to light, against enlistments and the prosecution of this war? Have you not over and over again predicted the impossibility of the government's putting down the rebellion? Would you, if in your power, put down the rebellion by force, and against the wishes of the rebels?

These are questions I should not presume to ask if you were not slightly given to examining the opinions of your friends, myself included. MAT. H. CARPENTER.

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE.

OVER THE POST OFFICE.

THERE is nothing so much sought for by the public as a practical Sewing Machine, one that is Simple, Strong & Reliable.

One that will run for years without the annoyance of being out of repair; one that is noiseless and swift in motion; also that makes the stitch as you want it, alike on both sides of the fabric; such are the machines of the

FLORENCE SEWING MACHINE COMPANY.

Who take pleasure in placing their Machines before the public, and unhesitatingly say they are the best in the world, and openly and publicly challenge machines of any and all manufacturers to do as large a range of work as can easily be done on one of these machines. They make and have all the advantage of a reversible feed motion, which carries the work either way, which, together with making all the four stitches, can be done whilst the machine is in motion; the saving of time in stepping to change the length of stitch, is obviated by this machine.

FOUR DIFFERENT STITCHES,

Any correspondence regarding our Machines will be promptly answered. Enclose a Letter Stamp and we will send circular and sample of work by return mail.

Morris Island and Chattanooga Evacuated.

The rebel reports give the particulars of the evacuation of Morris Island. There is now little doubt that this event has occurred.

It is also reported that Chattanooga has been occupied by Gen. Rosecrans.

The news is indeed cheering from every quarter.

The Great Meeting in Kansas.

The camp meeting at Paola, called by Jim Lane, was held on the 8th inst. Over 3500 armed men were present, and hundreds were prevented from going by Schofield's order, the rain, and the insecurity of the people, as another raid by Quantrel is threatened. The leading men of the state were there. The resolutions denounce Ewing, Schofield and Gamble, and their policy which gives immunity to secession sympathizers, and exposes radical loyalists to massacre. They declare that military commanders can convert rebel assassins, only as civil courts convert convicted murderers, by killing them; they demand a change of commanders and an offensive instead of a defensive mode of warfare against bushwhackers and traitors; a vigilance committee was appointed to protect the border, and another committee to join one appointed in Missouri, to visit Washington to urge the removal of the commander of the department. It will thus be seen that wise counsels prevailed, and that no war on the constituted military authorities was recommended, but measures were taken to induce the government to protect Kansas and punish the guilty assassins who have spread mourning over that patriotic and liberty-loving state.

Jim Lane spoke for three hours in the open air, the rain pouring down the whole time. He was very bitter on Schofield and Gamble.

☞ Mayor Anthony, of Leavenworth, who was arrested by order of Gen. Ewing and carried to Kansas City, has been released. On his return he was escorted into the city by hundreds of citizens who went out to meet him. A public meeting was held, and Mayor Anthony addressed the people. He denounced Ewing as a dog, liar and coward. On the night after Anthony's arrest all the forces were employed in the city to prevent citizens from destroying the property owned by the officers and detectives engaged in making the arrest. Everybody there, without respect to party, denounces the arrest in unqualified terms.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, made an address at Saratoga, New York, on Friday, at the close of the county fair, on the state of the nation. He said the government must be sustained. As to slavery, it was an evil spirit, fruitful of national difficulties, and must finally fall in the contest with free principles. He said of the proclamation, that such slaves as it liberated could never be re-enslaved; where they were not liberated, the people would settle the matter themselves when they came back to the Union.—Exchange.

If Hon. Reverdy Johnson, and his style of Union men, had seen matters in this light earlier in the war, it would have ended much sooner, and many thousands of valuable lives would have been saved, besides much treasure. The attempt to save both slavery and the Union has been an expensive business, and we are not yet entirely relieved of that kind of border state policy.

☞ Gen. Sibley has returned to St. Paul. He succeeded in scaring the Indians, and, according to their account, killed twenty-six old men and women who could not escape.

Mr. Carpenter's Letter.

We publish this afternoon the letter of M. H. Carpenter to the Milwaukee News, which we commend to the attention of every reader. We dissent from his position that the failure of a union of all loyal men in this state irrespective of former political associations is chargeable upon the republican party, as we fully believe that the democratic politicians and press of the state had determined from the outset to preserve intact their organization, and avail themselves of every act or delinquency of the general government to create a prejudice against the republican party for the sole purpose of reinstating their party in power, and have labored diligently and hopefully to this end. There has never been from them any talk about or proposition for a "union" except in republican localities, and in those localities it was always some democrat whose claims were urged for recognition. "Union" has been good on a democrat in Rock county, but "union" has been scouted on a republican in Washington or Milwaukee counties. The evidence of a willingness on the part of republicans to support democrats who are true to their country is found in the fact that they have democrats on their state ticket for three of the most important offices in the state, and in the support they have always given to every democratic civil or military officer who has faithfully discharged his duty. However, this is an immaterial matter in Mr. Carpenter's letter, and we only allude to it to reserve from it the approval we generally otherwise bestow upon it, and remarking that his estimate of the character and history of the democratic party is much higher than we have ever been led to place upon that party.

Mr. Carpenter puts some telling questions to various leaders of the present copperhead organization, and is particularly happy in his hit at Judge Orton; but the following, which we extract from the letter, to give it prominence, is a stroke from a pure Damascus blade:

"Now, Messrs. Lyon & Paul, are you in favor of this war? Are you not both bitterly opposed to it? Has your paper ever contained a word of encouragement, or suggested a hope to the government? Have you not uniformly published every discouraging fact or theory that has come to light, against enlistments and the prosecution of this war? Have you not over and over again predicted the impossibility of the government's putting down the rebellion? Would you, if in your power, put down the rebellion by force, and against the wishes of the rebels?"

These, and other questions in the letter, the News refuses to answer, characterising them as "side issues" unworthy of its attention. Loyal men will regard them as wholly and especially pertinent, and the refusal to answer will be attributed to an inability to give a satisfactory reply. They contain the very pith of the matter in controversy. Is the News a loyal or a disloyal newspaper? Are its followers and supporters loyal or disloyal men? The nature of the answer to these questions decides the character of the paper and its friends. It is no irrelevant "side issue" to press them, and Mr. Carpenter is entirely "within the record" when he puts them. The plea of the News is simply the culprit's privilege of refusing to answer because an answer would criminate himself.

ELEGANT AND VALUABLE BOOKS.—We have had the pleasure of examining the works of the great American naturalist, John James Audubon, which an agent, Mr. E. G. Mygatt, is now presenting to our citizens for their patronage.

These works, consisting of the "Birds of North America," seven volumes, and the "Quadrupeds of America," three volumes, are the result of the enthusiastic and energetic labors of their author for a life time. Mr. Audubon spent many years of his life on the prairies, mountains, seas and lakes of our country, and traversed the swamps and lagoons of the south, with gun and pencil in hand, capturing birds and animals, drawing representations of their forms, colors, habits and characteristics, and in fact making his home in the wilds of America out of pure love for the excitements of such a life and devotion to science. In this way he produced his first great work, which was the precursor of the volumes now offered to the public. It was the most astonishing result of perseverance and genius ever offered to the public in the shape of a book, for it contained 1065 different pictures of birds, the size of life, all drawn and colored by the author's own hand, and each copy was sold at $1000, there being but one hundred and seventy-five subscribers!

The works offered by Mr. Mygatt is an edition of the same material reduced in size and price, beautifully colored to nature, bound in magnificent style, and altogether presenting a library on American natural history, so attractive to the lover of good books and elegant creations of art, that all who look at them are tempted to buy. To those who are so fortunately situated as to be able to become the possessor of these volumes we recommend them not to hesitate, as such books are not only ornamental to the library but are a "perpetual pleasure, pleasing at once the eye and taste, and improving the mind and heart."

Mr. Mygatt is also agent for another valuable work, the "American Cyclopedia," published by D. Appleton & Co., which is a small library in itself, and almost indispensable to all business and professional men. It has been tested by the critics during the progress of its publication, and pronounced correct in all respects. We refer to the Cyclopedia itself, which has been completed some time, and not to the "Annual Cyclopedia," now in course of publication.

EAST TENNESSEE.—Gen. Rosecrans, with Andy Johnson, is establishing civil authority in loyal districts of Tennessee as rapidly as possible, with a view to the election of congressmen to the next congress.

A DRAFT ORDERED IN OHIO.—The provost marshal general has notified Gov. Tod that the assistant provost marshal has been ordered to make a draft in Ohio for 12,532 men.

The Janesville Convention.

The fullest arrangements have been made to have the convention of loyal democrats, at Janesville, on the 17th of this month, one of the most complete and popular demonstrations which has yet taken place in the west. The following distinguished men have been invited to be present and address the convention, and many of them will undoubtedly comply:

The gathering of such an array of talent combined with that which will be present from our own state, will make up a feast of eloquence from which no one can afford to be absent.

Arrangements will be perfected by which half fare tickets will be issued by the following railroads: Milwaukee & Prairie du Chien Railroad, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, Chicago & Milwaukee Railroad, Racine & Mississippi Railroad, Chicago & Northwestern Railroad.

The fullest arrangements are also in progress for providing accommodations at Janesville for all who may attend there. Aside from the hotel accommodations of the city, which are superior in themselves, the doors of private houses will be thrown open, so that no one shall be without shelter.

Delegations from any part of the state may take those trains which will land them in Janesville between two and three o'clock on Thursday, and arrive in time for all except the preliminary proceedings; and may leave Janesville, homeward, on the night trains, avoiding all risk of lack of accommodations.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

The Draft in Wisconsin.

The Madison Journal makes the following statement of facts and figures in relation to the draft in this state, derived from official sources:

The quota of this state, previous to the call of July 2d, 1862, was 21,753. At the adjutant general's office, in Washington, we are credited with 21,725 men as an off-set to the above, being an excess of 2,972. Our quota under the call of July 2d, 1862, was 11,904. We are credited with furnishing 13 regiments and 1,670 recruits for old regiments, making 14,230 men, so that down to the call of August 6th, 1862, for 11,904 nine months' men, we are credited with an excess of 5,298 men,—three years' men. Next comes this last call, for 11,904 nine months' men; and here we are credited with one regiment (34th) of 958 men, showing a deficiency of 10,946 nine months' men. Upon the basis of the above figures, multiplying the excess (of three years' men) by 4, to reduce it to nine months' men, we have 31,192; from which deduct the deficiency of nine months' men, (10,946) and we have an excess of 10,246 nine months' men, or 2,561 three years' men, which is the actual excess now credited to the state by the adjutant general, U. S. A., as furnished to the provost marshal general. The excess, in all cases, is calculated by the department on the basis of three years' men.

On examining, however, the detailed statement of this calculation, received from the Adjutant General's office at Washington, it is found that his figures fail to give this state credit for a considerable number of men belonging to different organizations, and also for the substitutes for drafted men, who went into old regiments, all amounting to about 1,400 three years' men. A full and careful statement of this matter is being prepared, and will be forwarded to Washington, immediately, and will doubtless be allowed, so that the final amount of excess to be allowed to the state will be about 4,000 men.

Whatever this excess is, it is to be, according to the system adopted by the department, deducted from the total number of enrolled men of the 1st class in the state, and one-fifth of the remainder are to be drafted. This, according to the best data at hand for calculation, would make the number to be drafted from this congressional district about 2,500. Of course, where towns have furnished largely heretofore, they have less of the 1st class men remaining, and their one fifth will be less than that of towns which have not heretofore furnished so largely, and have more 1st class men remaining; so that, to a certain extent, towns will after all get credit for the numbers heretofore sent.

Governor Salomon holds that, instead of deducting the excess from the whole of the 1st class enrollment, and drafting one fifth of the remainder, the juster method would be to first ascertain the one-fifth of that class, deduct the credit from that number, and draft the number remaining, and has addressed the provost marshal general to that effect. The difference is seen by a simple calculation. Say that this congressional district has 13,000 men of the 1st class enrolled, and an excess of 800 men. The present plan would result thus:

13,000—800=12,200, divided by 5, makes 2,440 to be drafted. The other method, urged by the governor, would result thus:

13,000 divided by 5 is 2,600, from which deduct 800, leaves 1,800 to be drafted.

In view of the letter of the provost marshal general to Hon. M. Clarke, of Rochester, recently published, declining to give credit to towns for excess of men heretofore furnished, thus contradicting the letter to Gov. Salomon promising to give such credit, the governor has addressed the provost marshal general, enquiring as to what is the final determination of the department, so that the people of the state may not lose their time and labor in looking up their lists of volunteers.

We have no doubt that full justice will be done Wisconsin in this matter as compared with other states, and if credit is not allowed to towns on account of excess of troops heretofore furnished, Gov. Salomon will at least have made every effort to secure it. We think the News and kindred papers who are making themselves unhappy about this matter may safely trust the governor to look after the interests of Wisconsin.

THE PRINCIPAL DEFECT IN OUR MONITOR TURRETS.—At the first bombardment of Fort Sumter, the monitors had so many of the bolts in their turrets driven in, that a number of persons were disabled, and now Captain Rodgers, one of our most valuable officers, has been killed by a similar disaster.

As our readers are generally aware, these turrets are 11 inches in thickness, made of plates 1 inch thick, bolted together by numerous bolts. The terrible concussion of large shot breaks the bolts, and knocks off the nuts on the ends of them, which are very dangerous to all persons standing near. We know of no more promising field for the employment of inventive genius than improvements in the mode of building up these turrets. Inventors who may turn their attention to it will do well to bear in mind the inexpediency of forging and fashioning very large masses of wrought iron. —Scientific American.

Canada is said to be overrun with "low fellows" who have left the states to escape the draft. A letter says that "crime is rampant in many places, and it is no exaggeration to say that three-fourths of it is traced to these runaways."

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.

The transport City of Baltimore, with dates from off Charleston to September 6th, has arrived.

The siege of Wagner and Sumter are still going on. The iron-clads and land batteries were still bombarding Wagner, which had not replied for two days. There were but few casualties.

There is news from Morris Island, but it is contraband. Its nature is unknown.

NEWBERN, N. C., Sept. 6.

Hon. David Heaton, a representative of the treasury department, left here on the 2d inst., for Washington on important business of a commercial and civil character.

The Raleigh Standard is full of the proceedings of peace meetings from different correspondents, which fearlessly endorse the course of the Standard.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 9.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 8th contains the following:

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7.—Morris Island was evacuated yesterday afternoon. The enemy had advanced their sappers up to the moat of Wagner, and, it being impossible to hold it, Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which took place at noon.

The enemy hold Cummings' Point, in full view of the city.

Heavy firing is now going on between our batteries on Sullivan's Island and Fort Moultrie and the Monitors.

The following is from the Richmond Whig of the 8th:

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7.—The bombardment was kept up without intermission, all day yesterday, and far into the night.—About 150 of our men were killed and wounded at batteries Wagner and Gregg.

The attempt to assault battery Gregg was repulsed before the enemy had completed their landing. Great havoc is supposed to have been made in the enemy's boats by our grape and canister.

At dark on Wednesday, the enemy having advanced their sappers up to the very moat of Wagner, and it being impossible to hold the island longer, Gen. Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which was executed between 8 p. m. and 1 a. m., with success. We spiked the guns of Wagner and Gregg, and withdrew noiselessly in forty barges. Only one barge, containing twelve men, was captured.

All quiet this morning.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7—Noon.—A dispatch from Maj. Stephen Elliott, commanding at Fort Sumter, announces that a flag of truce, demanding the immediate surrender of that fort, had just been received from Admiral Dahlgren by Lieut. Brown of the Palmetto State. Gen. Beauregard has telegraphed to Maj. Elliott to reply to Dahlgren that he can have Fort Sumter when he takes and holds it, and that in the meantime such demands are puerile and unbecoming.

8 p. m.—At 6 p. m., the iron-clads and monitors approached Fort Sumter closer than usual, and opened a hot fire against it. Our batteries on Sullivan's Island, including Fort Moultrie, replied heavily. The firing is still going on.

PEPPER'S GHOST IN CHICAGO.—Prof. Pepper's Ghost, which has startled Gotham out of its propriety—we beg pardon of the mobites—has been eclipsed in Chicago.—An individual from the rural districts stepped into Down & Co.'s store on Lake st., a few days ago, and while making some purchases, cast his eye away down the long lines of shelving and counters, remarking to a clerk—"Mighty long store this is from one end to t'other." The clerk nodded assent, and the eye of the countryman fell upon his own reflection in a large mirror at the further end of the store. "There's my brother out there in that ere alley, sure as you live, and I hain't seen him afore in three years. How can I get back there?" The clerk told him he would have to go out upon Lake street, around the corner and into the alley. It should be remarked that the clerk did not see the joke, really supposing that the countryman had seen his brother through a rear window. Rural went out, and, after a thorough search, returned and announced that his brother had "gin him the slip." Looking down the store again, he exclaimed, "I'll be darned if brother John ain't there again," and down he paddled towards the mirror. As he neared it, he smiled; his reflection in the mirror cordially returned it, and advanced to meet him. Rural extended his hand, and the reflection extended its hand. Just at that instant Rural's hand came in contact with the cold glass; he started back, rubbed his eyes, took a second look —and saw it. He rushed from the store, swearing that "he and brother John were twins, and couldn't tell one another apart, and the durnd looking-glass had sucked him in."—Chicago Journal.

OVER NIAGARA FALLS.—The Rochester Democrat has the following: "A rumor reached us on Saturday that two more victims had gone over Niagara Falls from the American side, on Friday evening. It is stated that at 8 o'clock in the evening, just after dusk, a party of gentlemen crossing the bridge from Goat Island, saw a boat containing two men coming down the rapids. It passed beneath the bridge and soon disappeared. It was supposed that the unfortunate men attempted to cross from Chippewa, and that the current proved too strong for them as they reached this side of the river. If the rumor is confirmed it will cause more caution to be exercised in crossing the river at that point, than has heretofore been exhibited. A number of persons have lost their lives in attempting to make this passage."

A VINEGAR SPRING.—The correspondent of the Leavenworth Conservative with Gen. Blunt, in describing the strange mineral and yet fertile country through which the army passed on its southward march from Fort Scott, says that near Baxter's Spring some of the boys dug into a side hill and struck a gushing fountain of clear sour water—as sour as if half a gallon of vinegar had been turned into each pailful. It was not astringent, like alum water, but had the flavor of pure acetic acid. All sorts of minerals abounded, and sulphur springs are abundant. Coal can anywhere be found by digging a few feet. All that remains necessary is to settle it with a free labor population.

LIVELY TIMES.—The copperheads of Illinois are fast turning into swelled-heads. The process makes lively times, particularly down towards Egypt. General Grant has sent home from ten to twenty thousand of his grand army on furlough. These battle scarred veterans of Shiloh, Donelson and Vicksburg, are scattered all over the state, and when they come across one of the reptiles talking treason and abusing the government, they forthwith proceed to transform him from a copperhead into a swelled head. The process is very much the same as that used in Mississippi. The boys say they can't see any difference between a rebel in Illinois and one in Mississippi. If this thing is permitted to go on, we don't know what will become of the "constitution."

DIED—At Camp Sherman, near Vicksburg, on the 27th of August, WM R CHENEY, son of Chas. O. Cheney of this city, in the 25th year of his age.

The deceased was a member of Co. K., 26th regiment Illinois volunteers, and joined Gen. Pope's army at Commerce, Mo. The regiment was first under fire at New Madrid, March 3d, 1862. Assisted in repulsing the enemy's gunboats and planting batteries erected to command the Mississippi river at Point Pleasant, March 6th, 1862. On the night of March 17th, hauled a heavy siege gun to Riddle Point, seven miles, and succeeded in planting it at break of day, and repulsed five large gunboats, sinking one. At the taking of Island No. 10, March 10th. Joined Gen. Halleck's army March 24th at Hamburg, Tennessee; fought against vast odds, and held the enemy in check till ordered to retire. At Farmington, Miss., May 9th. On the afternoon of May 28th the 26th Illinois and 8th Wisconsin met and repulsed the charge of the rebels at Corinth, Miss. At the battle of Iuka, Sept. 19th. Present and bore an honorable part in the decisive battle at Corinth, Oct. 3d and 4th. When Davies' division gave way, the 26th Illinois was marched to the breach, and Gen. Rosecrans rode up and said "Boys, I want you to hold this place at all hazards;" and it was held. Wm. R. Cheney took an active part in all of the above named engagements, enjoyed remarkable health until his last sickness. But he is gone to swell the number of those who have sacrificed their lives for the good of their country. C. C. C.

☞ The Mark Lane, England, Express says that the grain crop is much beyond the average, this year, both in quantity and quality.

☞ Letters from New Orleans to the 29th ult., say that as yet they have no trade with the other southern states.—The stock of sugar is slim, fully fair quoted at 11½. No good molasses left.

The citizens of Pittsburgh have telegraphed to the mayor of Leavenworth an offer to furnish homes and education to fifty of the children made orphans in the recent Lawrence massacre. If the offer is accepted, a committee will be sent for the children, and the expense of transfer will be borne by the Pittsburghians.

☞ The Third Wisconsin cavalry, under Maj. E. A. Calkins, participated in the recent brilliant campaign of Gen. Blunt, which resulted in driving the rebels out of the Indian territory.

DIED.

Morris Island and Chattanooga Evacuated.

The rebel reports give the particulars of the evacuation of Morris Island. There is now little doubt that this event has occurred.

It is also reported that Chattanooga has been occupied by Gen. Rosecrans.

The news is indeed cheering from every quarter.

No Report.

JANESVILLE, Sept. 10—3 P. M.

Editors Gazette:—Chicago says no report received up to this time. No reason given. OPERATOR.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 9.

Crittenden's division of Rosecrans' army took possession of Chattanooga, to-day. The enemy evacuated it yesterday, retreating south.

The Great Meeting in Kansas.

The camp meeting at Paola, called by Jim Lane, was held on the 8th inst. Over 3500 armed men were present, and hundreds were prevented from going by Schofield's order, the rain, and the insecurity of the people, as another raid by Quantrel is threatened. The leading men of the state were there. The resolutions denounce Ewing, Schofield and Gamble, and their policy which gives immunity to secession sympathizers, and exposes radical loyalists to massacre. They declare that military commanders can convert rebel assassins, only as civil courts convert convicted murderers, by killing them; they demand a change of commanders and an offensive instead of a defensive mode of warfare against bushwhackers and traitors; a vigilance committee was appointed to protect the border, and another committee to join one appointed in Missouri, to visit Washington to urge the removal of the commander of the department. It will thus be seen that wise counsels prevailed, and that no war on the constituted military authorities was recommended, but measures were taken to induce the government to protect Kansas and punish the guilty assassins who have spread mourning over that patriotic and liberty-loving state.

Jim Lane spoke for three hours in the open air, the rain pouring down the whole time. He was very bitter on Schofield and Gamble.

☞ Mayor Anthony, of Leavenworth, who was arrested by order of Gen. Ewing and carried to Kansas City, has been released. On his return he was escorted into the city by hundreds of citizens who went out to meet him. A public meeting was held, and Mayor Anthony addressed the people. He denounced Ewing as a dog, liar and coward. On the night after Anthony's arrest all the forces were employed in the city to prevent citizens from destroying the property owned by the officers and detectives engaged in making the arrest. Everybody there, without respect to party, denounces the arrest in unqualified terms.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, of Maryland, made an address at Saratoga, New York, on Friday, at the close of the county fair, on the state of the nation. He said the government must be sustained. As to slavery, it was an evil spirit, fruitful of national difficulties, and must finally fall in the contest with free principles. He said of the proclamation, that such slaves as it liberated could never be re-enslaved; where they were not liberated, the people would settle the matter themselves when they came back to the Union.—Exchange.

If Hon. Reverdy Johnson, and his style of Union men, had seen matters in this light earlier in the war, it would have ended much sooner, and many thousands of valuable lives would have been saved, besides much treasure. The attempt to save both slavery and the Union has been an expensive business, and we are not yet entirely relieved of that kind of border state policy.

☞ Gen. Sibley has returned to St. Paul. He succeeded in scaring the Indians, and, according to their account, killed twenty-six old men and women who could not escape.

Mr. Carpenter's Letter.

We publish this afternoon the letter of M. H. Carpenter to the Milwaukee News, which we commend to the attention of every reader. We dissent from his position that the failure of a union of all loyal men in this state irrespective of former political associations is chargeable upon the republican party, as we fully believe that the democratic politicians and press of the state had determined from the outset to preserve intact their organization, and avail themselves of every act or delinquency of the general government to create a prejudice against the republican party for the sole purpose of reinstating their party in power, and have labored diligently and hopefully to this end. There has never been from them any talk about or proposition for a "union" except in republican localities, and in those localities it was always some democrat whose claims were urged for recognition. "Union" has been good on a democrat in Rock county, but "union" has been scouted on a republican in Washington or Milwaukee counties. The evidence of a willingness on the part of republicans to support democrats who are true to their country is found in the fact that they have democrats on their state ticket for three of the most important offices in the state, and in the support they have always given to every democratic civil or military officer who has faithfully discharged his duty. However, this is an immaterial matter in Mr. Carpenter's letter, and we only allude to it to reserve from it the approval we generally otherwise bestow upon it, and remarking that his estimate of the character and history of the democratic party is much higher than we have ever been led to place upon that party.

Mr. Carpenter puts some telling questions to various leaders of the present copperhead organization, and is particularly happy in his hit at Judge Orton; but the following, which we extract from the letter, to give it prominence, is a stroke from a pure Damascus blade:

"Now, Messrs. Lyon & Paul, are you in favor of this war? Are you not both bitterly opposed to it? Has your paper ever contained a word of encouragement, or suggested a hope to the government? Have you not uniformly published every discouraging fact or theory that has come to light, against enlistments and the prosecution of this war? Have you not over and over again predicted the impossibility of the government's putting down the rebellion? Would you, if in your power, put down the rebellion by force, and against the wishes of the rebels?"

These, and other questions in the letter, the News refuses to answer, characterising them as "side issues" unworthy of its attention. Loyal men will regard them as wholly and especially pertinent, and the refusal to answer will be attributed to an inability to give a satisfactory reply. They contain the very pith of the matter in controversy. Is the News a loyal or a disloyal newspaper? Are its followers and supporters loyal or disloyal men? The nature of the answer to these questions decides the character of the paper and its friends. It is no irrelevant "side issue" to press them, and Mr. Carpenter is entirely "within the record" when he puts them. The plea of the News is simply the culprit's privilege of refusing to answer because an answer would criminate himself.

ELEGANT AND VALUABLE BOOKS.—We have had the pleasure of examining the works of the great American naturalist, John James Audubon, which an agent, Mr. E. G. Mygatt, is now presenting to our citizens for their patronage.

These works, consisting of the "Birds of North America," seven volumes, and the "Quadrupeds of America," three volumes, are the result of the enthusiastic and energetic labors of their author for a life time. Mr. Audubon spent many years of his life on the prairies, mountains, seas and lakes of our country, and traversed the swamps and lagoons of the south, with gun and pencil in hand, capturing birds and animals, drawing representations of their forms, colors, habits and characteristics, and in fact making his home in the wilds of America out of pure love for the excitements of such a life and devotion to science. In this way he produced his first great work, which was the precursor of the volumes now offered to the public. It was the most astonishing result of perseverance and genius ever offered to the public in the shape of a book, for it contained 1065 different pictures of birds, the size of life, all drawn and colored by the author's own hand, and each copy was sold at $1000, there being but one hundred and seventy-five subscribers!

The works offered by Mr. Mygatt is an edition of the same material reduced in size and price, beautifully colored to nature, bound in magnificent style, and altogether presenting a library on American natural history, so attractive to the lover of good books and elegant creations of art, that all who look at them are tempted to buy. To those who are so fortunately situated as to be able to become the possessor of these volumes we recommend them not to hesitate, as such books are not only ornamental to the library but are a "perpetual pleasure, pleasing at once the eye and taste, and improving the mind and heart."

Mr. Mygatt is also agent for another valuable work, the "American Cyclopedia," published by D. Appleton & Co., which is a small library in itself, and almost indispensable to all business and professional men. It has been tested by the critics during the progress of its publication, and pronounced correct in all respects. We refer to the Cyclopedia itself, which has been completed some time, and not to the "Annual Cyclopedia," now in course of publication.

EAST TENNESSEE.—Gen. Rosecrans, with Andy Johnson, is establishing civil authority in loyal districts of Tennessee as rapidly as possible, with a view to the election of congressmen to the next congress.

A DRAFT ORDERED IN OHIO.—The provost marshal general has notified Gov. Tod that the assistant provost marshal has been ordered to make a draft in Ohio for 12,532 men.

The Janesville Convention.

The fullest arrangements have been made to have the convention of loyal democrats, at Janesville, on the 17th of this month, one of the most complete and popular demonstrations which has yet taken place in the west. The following distinguished men have been invited to be present and address the convention, and many of them will undoubtedly comply:

John Van Buren, Lewis Cass, General Dix, Daniel S. Dickinson, James T. Brady, Richard Busteed, Joseph Holt, James Guthrie, Generals Logan, McClernand, Butler and Starkweather.

The gathering of such an array of talent combined with that which will be present from our own state, will make up a feast of eloquence from which no one can afford to be absent.

Arrangements will be perfected by which half fare tickets will be issued by the following railroads: Milwaukee & Prairie du Chien Railroad, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad, Chicago & Milwaukee Railroad, Racine & Mississippi Railroad, Chicago & Northwestern Railroad.

The fullest arrangements are also in progress for providing accommodations at Janesville for all who may attend there. Aside from the hotel accommodations of the city, which are superior in themselves, the doors of private houses will be thrown open, so that no one shall be without shelter.

Delegations from any part of the state may take those trains which will land them in Janesville between two and three o'clock on Thursday, and arrive in time for all except the preliminary proceedings; and may leave Janesville, homeward, on the night trains, avoiding all risk of lack of accommodations.

BY ORDER OF THE COMMITTEE.

The Draft in Wisconsin.

The Madison Journal makes the following statement of facts and figures in relation to the draft in this state, derived from official sources:

The quota of this state, previous to the call of July 2d, 1862, was 21,753. At the adjutant general's office, in Washington, we are credited with 24,725 men as an offset to the above, being an excess of 2,972. Our quota under the call of July 2d, 1862, was 11,904. We are credited with furnishing 13 regiments and 1,670 recruits for old regiments, making 14,230 men, so that down to the call of August 6th, 1862, for 11,904 nine months' men, we are credited with an excess of 5,298 men,—three years' men. Next comes this last call, for 11,904 nine months' men; and here we are credited with one regiment (34th) of 958 men, showing a deficiency of 10,946 nine months' men. Upon the basis of the above figures, multiplying the excess (of three years' men) by 4, to reduce it to nine months' men, we have 31,192; from which deduct the deficiency of nine months' men, (10,946) and we have an excess of 10,246 nine months' men, or 2,561 three years' men, which is the actual excess now credited to the state by the adjutant general, U. S. A., as furnished to the provost marshal general. The excess, in all cases, is calculated by the department on the basis of three years' men.

On examining, however, the detailed statement of this calculation, received from the Adjutant General's office at Washington, it is found that his figures fail to give this state credit for a considerable number of men belonging to different organizations, and also for the substitutes for drafted men, who went into old regiments, all amounting to about 1,400 three years' men. A full and careful statement of this matter is being prepared, and will be forwarded to Washington, immediately, and will doubtless be allowed, so that the final amount of excess to be allowed to the state will be about 4,000 men.

Whatever this excess is, it is to be, according to the system adopted by the department, deducted from the total number of enrolled men of the 1st class in the state, and one-fifth of the remainder are to be drafted. This, according to the best data at hand for calculation, would make the number to be drafted from this congressional district about 2,500. Of course, where towns have furnished largely heretofore, they have less of the 1st class men remaining, and their one-fifth will be less than that of towns which have not heretofore furnished so largely, and have more 1st class men remaining; so that, to a certain extent, towns will after all get credit for the numbers heretofore sent.

Governor Salomon holds that, instead of deducting the excess from the whole of the 1st class enrollment, and drafting one-fifth of the remainder, the juster method would be to first ascertain the one-fifth of that class, deduct the credit from that number, and draft the number remaining, and has addressed the provost marshal general to that effect. The difference is seen by a simple calculation. Say that this congressional district has 13,000 men of the 1st class enrolled, and an excess of 800 men. The present plan would result thus:

13,000—800=12,200, divided by 5, makes 2,440 to be drafted. The other method, urged by the governor, would result thus:

13,000 divided by 5 is 2,600, from which deduct 800, leaves 1,800 to be drafted.

In view of the letter of the provost marshal general to Hon. M. Clarke, of Rochester, recently published, declining to give credit to towns for excess of men heretofore furnished, thus contradicting the letter to Gov. Salomon promising to give such credit, the governor has addressed the provost marshal general, enquiring as to what is the final determination of the department, so that the people of the state may not lose their time and labor in looking up their lists of volunteers.

We have no doubt that full justice will be done Wisconsin in this matter as compared with other states, and if credit is not allowed to towns on account of excess of troops heretofore furnished, Gov. Salomon will at least have made every effort to secure it. We think the News and kindred papers who are making themselves unhappy about this matter may safely trust the governor to look after the interests of Wisconsin.

THE PRINCIPAL DEFECT IN OUR MONITOR TURRETS.—At the first bombardment of Fort Sumter, the monitors had so many of the bolts in their turrets driven in, that a number of persons were disabled, and now Captain Rodgers, one of our most valuable officers, has been killed by a similar disaster.

As our readers are generally aware, these turrets are 11 inches in thickness, made of plates 1 inch thick, bolted together by numerous bolts. The terrible concussion of large shot breaks the bolts, and knocks off the nuts on the ends of them, which are very dangerous to all persons standing near. We know of no more promising field for the employment of inventive genius than improvements in the mode of building up these turrets. Inventors who may turn their attention to it will do well to bear in mind the inexpediency of forging and fashioning very large masses of wrought iron. —Scientific American.

Canada is said to be overrun with "low fellows" who have left the states to escape the draft. A letter says that "crime is rampant in many places, and it is no exaggeration to say that three-fourths of it is traced to these runaways."

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Sept. 9.

The transport City of Baltimore, with dates from off Charleston to September 6th, has arrived.

The siege of Wagner and Sumter are still going on. The iron-clads and land batteries were still bombarding Wagner, which had not replied for two days. There were but few casualties.

There is news from Morris Island, but it is contraband. Its nature is unknown.

NEWBERN, N. C., Sept. 6.

Hon. David Heaton, a representative of the treasury department, left here on the 2d inst., for Washington on important business of a commercial and civil character.

The Raleigh Standard is full of the proceedings of peace meetings from different correspondents, which fearlessly endorse the course of the Standard.

FORTRESS MONROE, Sept. 9.

The Richmond Enquirer of the 8th contains the following:

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7.—Morris Island was evacuated yesterday afternoon. The enemy had advanced their sappers up to the moat of Wagner, and, it being impossible to hold it, Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which took place at noon.

The enemy hold Cummings' Point, in full view of the city.

Heavy firing is now going on between our batteries on Sullivan's Island and Fort Moultrie and the Monitors.

The following is from the Richmond Whig of the 8th:

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7.—The bombardment was kept up without intermission, all day yesterday, and far into the night.—About 150 of our men were killed and wounded at batteries Wagner and Gregg.

The attempt to assault battery Gregg was repulsed before the enemy had completed their landing. Great havoc is supposed to have been made in the enemy's boats by our grape and canister.

At dark on Wednesday, the enemy having advanced their sappers up to the very moat of Wagner, and it being impossible to hold the island longer, Gen. Beauregard ordered its evacuation, which was executed between 8 p. m. and 1 a. m., with success. We spiked the guns of Wagner and Gregg, and withdrew noiselessly in forty barges. Only one barge, containing twelve men, was captured.

All quiet this morning.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 7—Noon.—A dispatch from Maj. Stephen Elliott, commanding at Fort Sumter, announces that a flag of truce, demanding the immediate surrender of that fort, had just been received from Admiral Dahlgren by Lieut. Brown of the Palmetto State. Gen. Beauregard has telegraphed to Maj. Elliott to reply to Dahlgren that he can have Fort Sumter when he takes and holds it, and that in the meantime such demands are puerile and unbecoming.

8 p. m.—At 6 p. m., the iron-clads and monitors approached Fort Sumter closer than usual, and opened a hot fire against it. Our batteries on Sullivan's Island, including Fort Moultrie, replied heavily. The firing is still going on.

PEPPER'S GHOST IN CHICAGO.—Prof. Pepper's Ghost, which has startled Gotham out of its propriety—we beg pardon of the mobites—has been eclipsed in Chicago.—An individual from the rural districts stepped into Down & Co.'s store on Lake st., a few days ago, and while making some purchases, cast his eye away down the long lines of shelving and counters, remarking to a clerk—"Mighty long store this is from one end to t'other." The clerk nodded assent, and the eye of the countryman fell upon his own reflection in a large mirror at the further end of the store. "There's my brother out there in that ere alley, sure as you live, and I hain't seen him afore in three years. How can I get back there?" The clerk told him he would have to go out upon Lake street, around the corner and into the alley. It should be remarked that the clerk did not see the joke, really supposing that the countryman had seen his brother through a rear window. Rural went out, and, after a thorough search, returned and announced that his brother had "gin him the slip." Looking down the store again, he exclaimed, "I'll be darned if brother John ain't there again," and down he paddled towards the mirror. As he neared it, he smiled; his reflection in the mirror cordially returned it, and advanced to meet him. Rural extended his hand, and the reflection extended its hand. Just at that instant Rural's hand came in contact with the cold glass; he started back, rubbed his eyes, took a second look —and saw it. He rushed from the store, swearing that "he and brother John were twins, and couldn't tell one another apart, and the durnd looking-glass had sucked him in."—Chicago Journal.

OVER NIAGARA FALLS.—The Rochester Democrat has the following: "A rumor reached us on Saturday that two more victims had gone over Niagara Falls from the American side, on Friday evening. It is stated that at 8 o'clock in the evening, just after dark, a party of gentlemen crossing the bridge from Goat Island, saw a boat containing two men coming down the rapids. It passed beneath the bridge and soon disappeared. It was supposed that the unfortunate men attempted to cross from Chippewa, and that the current proved too strong for them as they reached this side of the river. If the rumor is confirmed it will cause more caution to be exercised in crossing the river at that point, than has heretofore been exhibited. A number of persons have lost their lives in attempting to make this passage."

A VINEGAR SPRING.—The correspondent of the Leavenworth Conservative with Gen. Blunt, in describing the strange mineral and yet fertile country through which the army passed on its southward march from Fort Scott, says that near Baxter's Spring some of the boys dug into a side hill and struck a gushing fountain of clear sour water—as sour as if half a gallon of vinegar had been turned into each pailful. It was not astringent, like alum water, but had the flavor of pure acetic acid. All sorts of minerals abounded, and sulphur springs are abundant. Coal can anywhere be found by digging a few feet. All that remains necessary is to settle it with a free labor population.

LIVELY TIMES.—The copperheads of Illinois are fast turning into swelled-heads. The process makes lively times, particularly down towards Egypt. General Grant has sent home from ten to twenty thousand of his grand army on furlough. These battle scarred veterans of Shiloh, Donelson and Vicksburg, are scattered all over the state, and when they come across one of the reptiles talking treason and abusing the government, they forthwith proceed to transform him from a copperhead into a swelled-head. The process is very much the same as that used in Mississippi. The boys say they can't see any difference between a rebel in Illinois and one in Mississippi. If this thing is permitted to go on, we don't know what will become of the "constitution."

DIED.—At Camp Sherman, near Vicksburg, on the 27th of August, WM R CHENEY, son of Chas. C. Cheney of this city, in the 25th year of his age.

The deceased was a member of Co. K., 26th regiment Illinois volunteers, and joined Gen. Pope's army at Commerce, Mo. The regiment was first under fire at New Madrid, March 3d, 1862. Assisted in repulsing the enemy's gunboats and planting batteries erected to command the Mississippi river at Point Pleasant, March 6th, 1862. On the night of March 17th, hauled a heavy siege gun to Riddle Point, seven miles, and succeeded in planting it at break of day, and repulsed five large gunboats, sinking one. At the taking of Island No. 10, March 10th. Joined Gen. Halleck's army March 24th at Hamburg, Tennessee; fought against vast odds, and held the enemy in check till ordered to retire. At Farmington, Miss., May 9th. On the afternoon of May 28th the 26th Illinois and 8th Wisconsin met and repulsed the charge of the rebels at Corinth, Miss. At the battle of Iuka, Sept. 19th. Present and bore an honorable part in the decisive battle at Corinth, Oct. 3d and 4th. When Davies' division gave way, the 26th Illinois was marched to the breach, and Gen. Rosecrans rode up and said "Boys, I want you to hold this place at all hazards;" and it was held. Wm. R. Cheney took an active part in all of the above named engagements, enjoyed remarkable health until his last sickness. But he is gone to swell the number of those who have sacrificed their lives for the good of their country. C. C. C.

☞ Letters from New Orleans to the 29th ult., say that as yet they have no trade with the other southern states.—The stock of sugar is slim, fully fair quoted at 11½. No good molases left.

The citizens of Pittsburgh have telegraphed to the mayor of Leavenworth an offer to furnish homes and education to fifty of the children made orphans in the recent Lawrence massacre. If the offer is accepted, a committee will be sent for the children, and the expense of transfer will be borne by the Pittsburghians.

☞ The Third Wisconsin cavalry, under Maj. E. A. Calkins, participated in the recent brilliant campaign of Gen. Blunt, which resulted in driving the rebels out of the Indian territory.

WYNKOOP'S ICELAND PECTORAL.

Diseases of the throat, chest and pulmonary organs are ever prevalent, insidious and dangerous. The properties of a medicine to alleviate, cure and uproot these complaints, must be expectorant, anodyne and invigorating, loosening the mucus of the throat, and imparting tone to the entire system. No discovery in medical science ever mastered this class of diseases like Dr. Wynkoop's Iceland Pectoral. It is used with the most astonishing results in all cases of bronchitis, influenza, whooping cough, diptheria or putrid sore throat, asthma, croup, coughs, colds, nervous irritability, &c.

The Rev. J. J. Potter certifies, "that I have used Dr Wynkoop's Pectoral for several years, myself and in my family, for severe pulmonary complaints, and have recommended it to many others, and have never seen its equal." Rev. J. J. POTTER, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Hundreds and thousands of important testimonials could be produced, showing its remarkable cures and that it never fails.

It is composed of pure Iceland moss, Balm of Gilead, Peruvian balsam, elecampane, comfrey, burdock, and other invaluable expectorant and tonic ingredients. It is harmless, prompt and lasting. Invalids and sufferers cannot afford to neglect a trial. Every family should have it. It is remarkable for croup. Full descriptions, recommendations and directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all the principal druggists.

Arrival of the Boxes.

CAMP 22ND REG'T. WIS. VOL. INFANTRY
MURFREESBORO, TENN., SEPT. 4TH, 1864.

Messrs. Burdick & Noxell

The boxes transmitted to the members of my company by their friends and relatives at home, through you, arrived safely yesterday; and the hearts of many "brave boys" were made glad by the delicacies and substantials contained therein. Nothing so cheers the soldier and encourages him to do his duty manfully, as the conciousness that "they miss him at home," and are interested in his welfare. In behalf of the company, I would return our grateful thanks to the donors; and to you we are under obligations for the trouble taken in forwarding the same.

Very respectfully,
GAGE BURGESS.
Capt. Co. E., 22nd Reg't Wis. V.

[special Notice.]

CHIROPODY.—It will be good news to those suffering from corns, bunions, ingrowing nails and others afflictions of the feet, to learn that the public benefactor in the person of Dr. Saunders the noted chiropodist from New York has arrived in town, and taken rooms at the Myers House, No. 10 and 11. In another column will be seen testimonials from Drs. Lewis, Adams, Robinson, Treat and Dodge.

☞ The city of Chicago is preparing to construct a two-mile brick tunnel sixty feet below the surface of lake Michigan for supplying the city with water. The bids for completing the work were recently opened, and range from $239,548 to $1,056,000.

TURN HIM OUT!—The Madison Journal says—"The enrolled men of the first class in the third ward held a meeting last night to correct omissions in the list. Mr. Ross, the local editor of the Patriot, submitted some remarks in which he expressed the opinion that all good citizens should cheerfully support the government in putting down the rebellion. The speech excited the ire of a number of copperheads present who called the speaker a 'Shanghai,' and an 'Abolitionist.'"

What business has a loyal man in the Madison Patriot? Turn him out!

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—A dangerous photograph of the Troy City Bank 3s has just been put in circulation. It is so well done that it is liable to deceive experienced money changers.

A new counterfeit on the Bank of Rutland has also made its appearance. It is a Two, and has black lettering; the genuine is green.

☞ Five rebel prisoners attempted to escape from Camp Douglas, Chicago, Monday night. One of them was shot, and the others surrendered. Among them was a son of ex governor Magoffin of Kentucky.

☞ The ladies of Milwaukee, a few of them, indulge in diamonds, three setts having been sold there at $1,000. So says the Wisconsin.

☞ We accidently omitted the name of Mr. F. W. Loudon from among the singers at the flag presentation at the Court Room on Tuesday evening.

ABUNDANCE OF PLUMS.—The market is well supplied with plums at $2.00 @ $2.50 per bushel. Our friends, Rev. Mr Lawrence and Mr. J. H. Balch do not forget that editors like such things and sent us some Magnum Bonums, "without money and without price."

SORE TOES.—Dr. Saunders operated upon our toes this morning in the most satisfactory manner. They have been more or less troublesome for five or six years, the nails "growing in" and requiring frequent treatment. He removed the offending portion of the nail to the very root, without pain, and discovered a corn under each, where there is now a hole where the corn "used to be." The doctor certainly operates skillfully, and the amount of relief a patient experiences is a good deal like that produced by a dentist, only the dentist hurts and the doctor doesn't.

COMING TO THE TOURNAMENT.—Mendota Engine Co. No. 1, of Madison, have decided to attend the tournament to be held in this city, Sept. 24th.

RAILROAD TIME.—See the changes in the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railway time table.

NEW GOODS.—It will be seen by our advertising columns that Messrs. Echlin & Foote have received their new stock of clothes for fall and winter trade. They are always up to time in the clothing trade, and we only need to inform our readers that their goods have arrived, and they are prepared to manufacture them to order in the best and latest styles.

☞ Rainy to-day.

AS GOOD AS NEW.—Mr. Merrick Woods, Londonderry, Vt writes: "Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum have restored my hair to its original color and beauty. One year ago my hair was very thin and quite gray. I have now as fine a head of hair as I ever had."

CAMP 22ND REG'T, WIS. VOL. INFANTRY
MURFREESBORO, TENN., SEPT. 4TH, 1863.

Messrs. Burdick & Newell:

The boxes transmitted to the members of my company by their friends and relatives at home, through you, arrived safely yesterday; and the hearts of many "brave boys" were made glad by the delicacies and substantials contained therein. Nothing so cheers the soldier and encourages him to do his duty manfully, as the conciousness that "they miss him at home," and are interested in his welfare. In behalf of the company, I would return our grateful thanks to the donors; and to you we are under obligations for the trouble taken in forwarding the same.

Very respectfully,
GAGE BURGESS.
Capt. Co. E., 22nd Reg't Wis. V.

[Special Notice.]

CHIROPODY.—It will be good news to those suffering from corns, bunions, ingrowing nails and others afflictions of the feet, to learn that the public benefactor in the person of Dr. Saunders the noted chiropodist from New York has arrived in town, and taken rooms at the Myers House, No. 10 and 11. In another column will be seen testimonials from Drs. Lewis, Adams, Robinson, Treat and Dodge.

☞ The city of Chicago is preparing to construct a two-mile brick tunnel sixty feet below the surface of lake Michigan for supplying the city with water. The bids for completing the work were recently opened, and range from $239,548 to $1,056,000.

TURN HIM OUT!—The Madison Journal says—"The enrolled men of the first class in the third ward held a meeting last night to correct omissions in the list. Mr. Ross the local editor of the Patriot, submitted some remarks in which he expressed the opinion that all good citizens should cheerfully support the government in putting down the rebellion. The speech excited the ire of a number of copperheads present, who called the speaker a 'Shanghai,' and an 'Abolitionist.'"

What business has a loyal man in the Madison Patriot? Turn him out!

NEW COUNTERFEITS.—A dangerous photograph of the Troy City Bank 3s has just been put in circulation. It is so well done that it is liable to deceive experienced money changers.

A new counterfeit on the Bank of Rutland has also made its appearance. It is a Two, and has black lettering; the genuine is green.

☞ Five rebel prisoners attempted to escape from Camp Douglas, Chicago, Monday night. One of them was shot, and the others surrendered. Among them was a son of ex-governor Magoffin of Kentucky.

☞ The ladies of Milwaukee, a few of them, indulge in diamonds, three setts having been sold there at $4,000. So says the Wisconsin.

☞ We accidently omitted the name of Mr. F. W. Loudon from among the singers at the flag presentation at the Court Room on Tuesday evening.

ABUNDANCE OF PLUMS.—The market is well supplied with plums at $2.00 @ $2.50 per bushel. Our friends, Rev. Mr Lawrence and Mr. J. H. Balch do not forget that editors like such things and sent us some Magnum Bonums, "without money and without price."

SORE TOES.—Dr. Saunders operated upon our toes this morning in the most satisfactory manner. They have been more or less troublesome for five or six years, the nails "growing in" and requiring frequent treatment. He removed the offending portion of the nail to the very root, without pain, and discovered a corn under each, where there is now a hole where the corn "used to be." The doctor certainly operates skillfully, and the amount of relief a patient experiences is a good deal like that produced by a dentist, only the dentist hurts and the doctor doesn't.

COMING TO THE TOURNAMENT.—Mendota Engine Co. No. 1, of Madison, have decided to attend the tournament to be held in this city, Sept. 24th.

RAILROAD TIME.—See the changes in the Milwaukee and Mississippi Railway time table.

NEW GOODS.—It will be seen by our advertising columns that Messrs. Echlin & Foote have received their new stock of clothes for fall and winter trade. They are always up to time in the clothing trade, and we only need to inform our readers that their goods have arrived, and they are prepared to manufacture them to order in the best and latest styles.

☞ Rainy to-day.

"AS GOOD AS NEW."—Mr. Merrick Woods, Londonderry, Vt., writes: "Mrs. S. A. Allen's World's Hair Restorer and Zylobalsamum have restored my hair to its original color and beauty. One year ago my hair was very thin and quite gray. I have now as fine a head of hair as I ever had."

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN,

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

PUBLIC INSPECTION

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and

BOUGHT LARGELY

of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 35 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for Piles of Goods.

the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public. But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to mouth cannot pretend to

COMPETE WITH US!

In proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York H Sheetings, 30c per yd.
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory, 20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines, 25c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines, 31¼c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long, $2,50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31¼c"

200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd,

which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

HAVE MANY PACKAGES

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.

We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

HOOP SKIRTS

at old prices. Our stock of

Hosiery, Gloves & Embroideries

will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Bor duro Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.

IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS

We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.

Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett

FLANNELS

for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

We have on the road and will shortly receive Five Hundred of the most fashionable for spring wear.

BLACK SILKS,

New Broom Black Silks, (to be had only of us,) also English Crown, Sumbline and Bischoff do do.

We close out from one of the heaviest importers in New York, 600 pieces heavy

GERMAN REPPS,

worth 50c per yard, which to those who buy to keep over, or for immediate wear, we offer as a drive at 25c per yard.

In Our Millinery Department

will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.

SHAKER HOODS,

OUR CLOTHING STORE

is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of

GENT'S GARMENTS.

We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of

Fancy Cassimeres,

which if desired, we shall

MAKE UP TO ORDER

in the first style of fashion.

In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the

GREAT MART,

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN SHEEP,

where they can obtain

Twenty-Five per Cent More

for their money than at any other store.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

1863. Grand Haven Route. 1863.

THE Steamships of this line commenced twice daily trips between Milwaukee and Grand Haven, in connection with the Detroit and Milwaukee railroad, Monday, May 4th, 1863, leaving the company's dock, Milwaukee, at 4.00 a m, and 4.15 p m.

These steamships make the trip to Grand Haven, (a distance of 85 miles,) in six hours with as much regularity as any railway train.

This is 18 hours the quickest, and 96 miles the shortest route, to all points in the Eastern States or Canada. Five hours the quickest, and 67 miles the shortest route to Cleveland, with no expense for sleeping car.

Fare from all points west, as low, and from Milwaukee, One Dollar Less than by other lines.

In advantage of luxurious sleeping cars, changes in Union depots, sure connections, and baggage checked through, this line is unsurpassed.

Offices in Milwaukee:—Corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, near the Post Office, and Miles & Armour's Warehouse, foot of East Water street.

GENERAL ORDER No. 1.

TO THE PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN.

The best bought, best selected, best assorted and most extensive stock of

DRY GOODS

ever offered in Janesville, is now open to

PUBLIC INSPECTION

at the

Great Mart of McKey & Bro.

WE have taken advantage of the recent unparalleled fall in the price of gold, E. McKey having resided almost exclusively in New York for the past three months, was on hand and of first class importers, who, under the influence of the panic,

Sacrificed Many Desirable Goods

at 50 cents on the dollar of the prices ruling one week previous. The public is aware that the cause of the great advance in the price of Imported Goods was the enormous premium on gold, to buy exchange and pay duties; that having declined from 74 to 33 per cent, or about 50 per cent on former rates, and we having been on the spot when it took place, went in for the purchase of one of which would Gobble up the entire resources of many of the so-called Merchants who Blow, Hurrah and Clap their hands before the public.

Piles of Goods.

But we believe that sensation advertisements are played out, and that it is scarcely necessary to inform the public that those who are compelled to buy goods in small lot, and live as it were from hand to month cannot pretend to

in proof of which we offer the following:

200 ps full yd wide New York E Sheetings, 30c per yd.
200 ps Portsmouth unbleached factory,.........20c "
500 ps Spring DeLaines,.........20c "
500 ps new Spring DeLaines,.........31¼c "
300 Balmoral Skirts, 4 yds wide, 1¼ yds long, $2.50.
100 ps A T Stewart fine print'd French Jaconets, 31¼c"

200 Ps Fine French Organdies at 25c per yd,

which were bought under peculiar circumstances, the same quality having been sold at wholesale last week in New York at 44c per yard. None of the above will be sold to neighboring speculators; our legitimate trade alone supplied.

Our purchases of nearly a year ago were so enormous that we still

of heavy and fine bleached and unbleached Sheetings and Shirtings, Merrimac, Sprague and other Prints, Shirtings, Stripes, Tickings, Denims, Cottonades for Summer wear, &c., &c., all of which we will now open and dispose of at prices which will make the small fry stand aside, and still further add to the Brilliant and Triumphant success which has crowned our efforts for the last fourteen years.

We shall still sell our justly celebrated and superior

HOOP SKIRTS

at old prices. Our stock of

Hosiery, Gloves & Embroideries

will be found the largest and most comprehensive in the state. Ladies will here find a full line of hand made Tatting, all widths, Collerette a La Eugene, Bordure Imperatrice, Linen Collars, plain and with ruffled, embroidered, colored and mourning trimming.

IN CLOAKINGS AND SACKINGS

We shall exhibit 100 pieces Middlesex and Washington all wool, most desirable shades, plain and mixed.

Our stock of all wool, silk warp and domett

FLANNELS

for spring and summer wear is full and well assorted.

SHAWLS! SHAWLS!

We have on the road and will shortly receive Five Hundred of the most fashionable for spring wear.

BLACK SILKS,

New Broom Black Silks, (to be had only of us,) also English Crown, Sumblime and Bischoff do do.

We close out from one of the heaviest importers in New York, 600 pieces heavy

GERMAN REPPS,

worth 50c per yard, which to those who buy to keep over, or for immediate wear, we offer as a drive at 25c per yard.

In Our Millinery Department

will be found everything desirable, choice and new, in Bonnetts and Flats of the fashionable Eugene, Alexandrina and Alboni styles; 1200 dozen best made of white and colored, all sizes. Ruches, black, white and magpie; new style frames; crown lining; cape lace; fine French flowers, rose buds, &c., &c. The usual liberal inducements to the trade.

SHAKER HOODS,

OUR CLOTHING STORE

is heavily stocked with all the new and desirable styles of

GENT'S GARMENTS.

We have also a well selected line of Harris, Woodstock and other well known brands of

Fancy Cassimeres,

which if desired, we shall

MAKE UP TO ORDER

in the first style of fashion.

In conclusion, we cordially invite the public, for its own satisfaction, to examine every stock in the city before looking at ours. But we would also caution every purchaser not to invest one dime in Dry Goods before calling at the

GREAT MART,

SIGN OF THE GOLDEN SHEEP,

where they can obtain

Twenty-Five per Cent More

for their money than at any other store.

GREAT REDUCTION

—IN—

The Prices

—OF—

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $70.

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

in Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best, The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

I. M. SINGER & CO.'s GAZETTE,

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, Badly Made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.
